Notice Rescinding Temporary Modification of Court Processes Implemented During the COVID-19 Pandemic

November 7, 2022

Beginning in early 2020, the Allen Superior Court Civil Division issued a series of notices temporarily modifying certain court processes in order to mitigate the spread of the COVID-19 virus. Those notices and modifications related to all civil cases, including cases in the small claims and probate courts. Generally, those modifications were communicated to the public and practitioners via the Court's website and various other means.

The Court is now issuing this Notice to inform the public and practitioners that all of those temporary modifications are rescinded. Case management in all Civil Division cases are subject only to the processes set out in the Indiana Trial Rules, Local Civil Rules, and Orders issued in individual cases.

Issued by: Allen Superior Court Civil Division Judges David J. Avery, Craig J. Bobay, Jennifer L. DeGroot, and Andrew S. Williams, and Magistrates Taylor A. Beaty, Brian D. Cook, Michael T. Douglass, and Phillip E. Houk.
